The National Black Church Initiative Does Not Endorse Any Political Party or Candidate

Washington, DC – The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) is a faith-based coalition of 34,000 churches comprised of 15 denominations and 15.7 million African Americans.

The National Black Church Initiative, a non-profit faith based organization, exists to unify, serve and represent the Black Evangelical Community with the divine (vertical) and human (horizontal) elements of the Christian message all while advancing the message of the Gospel.

To that end, the NBCI does not endorse any political party or candidate.

As a matter of civic participation, NBCI board members may espouse individual views or, in speaking to the national presidential election process, endorse a candidate. Such opinions and endorsements are solely those of the individual and should not be interpreted in any way, form or shape as an action by the NBCI.

Correspondingly, we invite all bible-based Christ followers to fully engage in prophetic activism by participating in a discourse that will heal our nation; one where truth shines, grace flows, love rules and unity prevails. Voting engagement is a rich tradition in the black Christian community since the end of slavery.

About NBCI

The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI) is a coalition of 34,000 African American and Latino churches working to eradicate racial disparities in healthcare, technology, education, housing, and the environment. NBCI's mission is to provide critical wellness information to all of its members, congregants, churches and the public. Our methodology is utilizing faith and sound health science.

NBCI's purpose is to partner with major organizations and officials whose main mission is to reduce racial disparities in the variety of areas cited above. NBCI offers faith-based, out-of-the-box and cutting edge solutions to stubborn economic and social issues. NBCI's programs are governed by credible statistical analysis, science based strategies and techniques, and methods that work. Visit our website at www.naltblackchurch.com.
