NBCI President, Rev. Anthony Evans Calls for Rally at U.S. Department of Justice To Protest Trayvon Martin Verdict Monday, July 15, 2013 at 12:00 Noon

(Washington, DC) - The Rev. Anthony Evans, President of the National Black Church Initiative declares “The church wants to make it very clear that we will not tolerate any violence at the end of this trial from any community – justified our not. Our purpose is to lead people to God through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It is not to seek revenge. This is why we urge everyone to pray for justice in this case and to pray for the soul of our nation – a place where this young black boy was found guilty of being a young black boy in America. Our young black boys must not believe that someone (white) will kill them for being a young black boy. There cannot be any justice until you secure the peace. In this case there was no justice so there will be no peace.”
