“Bringing people together to serve humanity”

The National Black Church Initiative Anti-Discrimination Policy

The National Black Church Initiative is an equal opportunity employer. NBCI will not discriminate and will take affirmative action measures to ensure against discrimination in employment, recruitment, advertisements for employment, compensation, termination, upgrading, promotions, and other conditions of employment against any employee, vendors, subcontractors or job applicant on the bases of race, creed, color, national origin, sex or sexual orientation.

The National Black Church Initiative Anti-Harassment Policy

The National Black Church Initiative is committed in all areas to providing a work environment that is free from harassment. Harassment based upon an individual's sex, race, ethnicity, national origin, age, religion, or any other legally protected characteristics will not be tolerated. All employees, vendors, subcontractors including supervisors and other management personnel, are expected and required to abide by this policy. No person will be adversely affected in employment with the employer as a result of bringing complaints of unlawful harassment.

Policy Statement

1. This policy applies to all employees (including contractors) and to non-employees who bully or harass others on company time or property.
2. NBCI will not tolerate harassment of any kind. A confirmed complaint of harassment will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

3. This policy will be distributed to all current employees and posted in a prominent location in the workplace. The policy will also be distributed to new employees during orientation.
4. Individuals that report bullying or harassment in good faith are protected from retaliation by NBCI or any employee of the company. Retaliation includes but is not limited to employee discipline, discharge, further acts of discrimination, or other adverse actions when those acts are intended to punish an employee for reporting harassment, opposing discrimination, or filing or assisting with a complaint to local, state, or federal antidiscrimination agencies.
5. NBCI will promptly investigate complaints of bullying, harassment, or retaliation. Such investigations will be fair and impartial. All employees of NBCI are required to cooperate with investigations of workplace bullying, harassment, or retaliation.

Definitions

Bullying is verbal or physical conduct that seeks to harm, intimidate, or coerce another person. Bullying is not necessarily based on a person's membership in a protected category like race, sex, age, or disability, among others.

Harassment is persistent and unwelcome conduct because of any of the bases protected by law (race, sex, sexual orientation age, disability, etc.). Harassment exists whenever.

- Submission to harassing conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of an individual's employment,
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for an employment decision affecting an individual.
- The conduct interferes with an employee's work or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

Sexual harassment is one type of harassment and includes unwelcome sexual advances, unwelcome physical contact of a sexual nature or unwelcome verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Unwelcome verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature includes the repeated making of unsolicited, inappropriate gestures or comments and the display of sexual materials not necessary for our work.

Recognizing Harassment

It is impossible to list every type of behavior that can be considered bullying or harassment in violation of this policy. In general, any conduct that could interfere with an individual's work performance or create a hostile work environment is forbidden. This is the case even if the offending employee did not mean to be offensive – employees must be sensitive to the feelings of others. Even mild offensive conduct can be considered bullying or harassment if someone has made it clear that it is unwelcome. Some examples include:

Verbal: Jokes, insults, and innuendoes; threats; degrading sexual remarks; whistling; cat calls; comments on a person's body or sex life; or pressures for sexual favors; participating in derogatory or insulting gossip.

Non-Verbal: Intimidating or confrontational body language; gestures, staring, touching, hugging, or patting; blocking a person's movement; standing too close; brushing against a person's body; display of sexually suggestive or degrading pictures; racist or other derogatory cartoons or drawings.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees who experience, witness or suspect bullying or harassing behavior must report the behavior to their direct supervisor, or to another supervisor or human resources if their direct supervisor is involved in the bullying or harassment. Employees that feel comfortable directly intervening in situations where they perceive bullying or harassment are encouraged to do so.

Supervisor Responsibilities

Supervisors and managers who receive a complaint of bullying or harassment, who observe such behavior, or suspect that such behavior is occurring have a duty to investigate the behavior and address it as necessary, or to report such suspected harassment to NBCI general counsel.

In addition to being subject to discipline if they engage in harassing conduct, supervisors and managers are subject to discipline for failing to report suspected harassment or otherwise knowingly allowing harassment to continue, or for engaging in retaliation or failing to report retaliatory acts.

Complaint and Investigation of Harassment

NBCI takes all reports of harassment seriously. NBC will promptly and thoroughly investigate any complaint, information, or knowledge of harassment. The investigation will be as confidential as possible. All persons involved, including complainants, witnesses, and alleged perpetrators may be required to cooperate in an investigation, will receive fair and impartial treatment, and will not be subject to retaliation for information disclosed to NBCI.

NBCI will take any interim actions necessary to protect complainants from further acts of bullying, harassment, or retaliation during the investigation. NBCI may review documents, interview employees, or take whatever investigatory steps it deems necessary to determine whether harassment occurred.

NBCI will notify the complainant of the outcome of the investigation, although NBCI may decline to reveal specific disciplinary actions taken where there are confidentiality issues with such disclosures.

Please contact NBCI general counsel to report any incident concerning these policies.
