NBCI Stands with Rachel Jentel

34,000 Member Churches love her and support her and her family – she told the truth and it shall set her free

Washington DC – The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI), a faith-based coalition of 34,000 churches comprised of 15 denominations and 15.7 million African Americans churchgoers, is quite disturbed from the ugliness we have heard from both blacks and whites in describing the character of Ms. Rachel Jentel. The church must remind everyone that Ms. Jentel is a child of God and to call her anything else is a sin. The mean spiritedness, the ugly words and the gross disregard of the circumstances that brought her to the nation’s attention will harm her soul if - we must show her compassion. After all, she is a child herself. Her only crime was to be on the phone the same time our beloved brother Travon Martin was brutally gunned down by George Zimmerman. Praise be to God that she told the truth in her own words with her own style.

The Rev. Anthony Evans, President of the National Black Church Initiative declares to the world that “Ms. Jentel is a solid, lovable Christian soul. She simply has been overwhelmed by a world that is quick to criticize you for anything and refuses to show you any of God’s love and compassion. The reason for this is that the world loves to destroy God’s angels such as Rachel Jentel. Amen.”

About NBCI
